

CMSA POSITION DESCRIPTIONS

AN OVERVIEW OF THE BASIC REQUIREMENTS OF EACH OF THE BOARD POSITIONS

The Call for Leaders

CMSA, the world's largest organization of case management professionals is seeking future leaders to serve as officers, and directors. CMSA is a not-for-profit Section 501(c)(6) professional society that is governed by an elected Board of Directors, supported by appointed taskforces and committees, and staffed by a professional association management company.

CMSA's Mission

In keeping with its mission "to promote the individual and collective professional development of health care case managers", future leaders will join a team of visionary leaders and dedicated professionals who are setting the pace with case management practice and health policy in today's healthcare environment.

Responsibility of BOD

Directors of CMSA will follow and/or establish strategic and tactical goals to further CMSA's mission and will oversee the organization's policies, programs, and financial management to ensure effective and efficient operations.

Expectations of BOD

Individuals elected to the CMSA BOD are expected to:

1. Be strategic thinkers balancing personal beliefs and CMSA's mission, and not representing the interests of any stakeholder group.
2. Be willing to work collaboratively within the governance structure of CMSA, as well as with the broad set of stakeholder groups that comprise the membership of CMSA.
3. Advocate for CMSA's mission by demonstrating a strong commitment to CMSA's programs through comments and actions and by supporting the implementation of national priorities and goals.
4. Stay current on healthcare quality topics, especially those that impact case/care management.
5. Regularly attend Board meetings, including in-person meetings and conference calls, as well as other events or activities as Board representatives.
6. Be aware of and disclose any conflicts of interest, including any situations that represent actual, potential, or apparent conflicts between obligations to CMSA and an interest in an external organization or activity.
7. Adhere to Campaign Guidelines as posted.
8. Adhere to the CMSA Conflict of Interest and Confidentiality policies.

Leadership Competencies and Professional Literacies

Future leaders will possess the necessary competencies and professional literacies (as indicated in these Board Position Descriptions and the Call for Nominations Form) and will:

- Be aware of current CMSA issues, concerns, and vision from a global perspective,
- Be committed to excellence in case management practice and process,
- Demonstrate a balance between visionary thinking and short-term action,
- Maintain the highest standard of personal conduct,
- Contribute to the enrichment of the Society,

- Be socially responsive and embrace openness and diversity within the Society and other organizations,
- Be knowledgeable of CMSA Bylaws and Robert's Rules of Order,
- Demonstrate an ability to provide effective leadership,
- Demonstrate effective verbal and written communication skills,
- Be computer literate and online accessible to maintain on-going interactive communication with other board members and staff, and
- Fulfill the time commitment, and travel expectations of a National leadership position.

Board members must:

1. Attend all face-to-face Board Meetings, including the Board Meeting at the Annual Conference preceding the term of office
2. Be present at a minimum of 80% of Board conference calls and virtual meetings
3. Participate weekly in online or email discussions
4. Participate in at least 80% of voting topics

Candidate Nomination Form Processing

All individuals interested in serving in a leadership position must complete the CMSA BOD Candidate Nomination Form. Completion of this form includes a 500 word or less Statement of Interest, a current Professional and Leadership information, and a Letter of Recommendation. Please ensure that all contact information, and credentials listed in your profile are current.

Access Your Candidate Nomination Form: The online BOD Nominations Form will be located at <http://www.cmsa.org/board-directors-nominations/>.

Process for Reviewing Candidate Nomination Form

Individuals who have previously served as CMSA National President-Elect and/or CMSA National President may be considered for additional terms in the event that there are not at least two (2) qualified candidates slated for said position on the ballot. Prior service on the CMSA National Board cannot exceed four (4) consecutive years until at least one year has elapsed.

Level I minimum criteria will be verified by CMSA National, which includes current member status, number of years as a CMSA member, and previous National Board terms served. The Nominating Committee will process all candidate applications who meet Level I criteria by applying Level II criteria. The final slate of candidates to the Board of Directors will be recommended based on other factors, diversity and geographic representation.

Those slated for the Board election will be contacted for additional information including:

- a. Headshot Photo
- b. Bio
- c. Written Campaign Statement (and support recording a verbal campaign statement)
- d. Conflict of Interest Statement
- e. Campaign Guidelines Commitment Form
- f. Verification of credentials (certifications/licensures/degrees)
